From the desk of Pr. Tom

The Generosity Challenge Is Coming

Congregations that approach financial stewardship from a biblical perspective do not view the money Christians give to their church merely as a way to pay its bills. Rather, such congregations see financial contributions as a way to help people grow spiritually in their relationship with God by supporting their church's mission and ministry with a percentage of their incomes.

This year's stewardship campaign is The Generosity Challenge as a way to connecting to our spiritual gifts of stewardship. Our congregation's finance team is leading the way to teach the biblical and spiritual principles of generous giving in our stewardship education emphasis this year.

The Generosity Challenge is based on the biblical philosophy of the need of the giver to give for his or her own spiritual development, rather than on the need of the church to receive. Instead of treating people like members of a social club who should pay dues, we will treat people like followers of Jesus Christ who want to give unselfishly as an act of discipleship. The Generosity Challenge encourages people toward proportionate and systematic giving in response to the question, "What percentage of my income is God calling me to give?"

During morning worship on Reformation Sunday, we are asking our attendees and members to make an anonymous financial commitment to our church's mission, benevolent, and outreach ministries in this community and around the world.

Every attendee and member who completes an anonymous Estimate of Giving Card does so voluntarily by attending morning worship on Reformation Sunday. The procedure is done in such a way so that no one feels personal embarrassment if he or she chooses not to fill out a card. If anyone is unable to attend on October 27 and wish's to complete an Estimate of Giving Card, call the office to make arrangements.

We will do no home solicitation to ask people to complete cards. During morning worship, our Bishop will conduct a brief period of instruction and inspiration, climaxed by members making their commitments as a confidential act of worship.

We will encourage participation on Reformation Sunday events through the leadership team and Council members. Since we will make no follow-up visits to ask people to complete their cards, we will make every effort to inform, and inspire everyone to attend a meaningful Reformation Sunday worship.

Thank you in advance for your enthusiastic participation in The Generosity Challenge events.

Pastor Tom

VISION TEAM

The Vision Team has finished it's work and presented the proposed Vision to Council on September 19. The Vision is now in the hands of the Council, and the Council is recommending to the congregation to consider.

Throughout these few months of hard work and research, the Team took into consideration what our congregation members said in the interviews, and at the Town Hall meetings. The Team also considered what the demographics of our congregation and our immediate community as well as trends in our denomination and in American Christianity. The proposed Vision is the culmination of work, serious deliberation, and prayers.

The Vision Team will unveil the proposed Vision at the congregation meeting on October 27, 2024. The Team is very excited about this Vision, as it will be a roadmap for our congregation as we modify, tweak, and develop existing and new ministries to meet the challenges of the coming years.

The Team is fully aware that there has been no approved Vision in living memory. Therefore, this particular Vision is for three years as a way for us to get used to the idea. Pastor believes strongly that the congregation should always be operating from a Vision where transparency, mutual goals, and understanding drive the ministries of the congregation. Without one, Pastor and the Team are concerned that we may not know where, what, or why we do any particular ministry or program.

Pastor wants to thank the members of the Vision Team: Blaine Waters, Brian Rogala, Jr., Candy Sprouse, Mary Rush, and Cyndi Allen. They were amazing in their commitments and willingness to work!

Superstitious?

Ordinarily I am not superstitious, but after last Friday the 13th, I am not so confident. I was born on Friday the 13th. I met my husband of nearly 54 years on Friday the 13th. I love black cats. I don't like ladders, but that's vertigo, not superstition.

All day long the WiFi worked just fine. Then the Google mini stopped working—said it couldn't find a connection. Then the camera I use to watch the critters stopped working, but only on my phone, then on Hubby's, then on mine. Google gave us a weather report, giggled, then quit again. The TV stalled in the middle of the movie. This went on for hours. We rebooted. We unplugged and re-plugged. We occasionally cursed.

By that time, my miniscule amount of patience was gone. I was arguing with my phone, the AI, and the camera—all of which (I know this logically) are plastic, metal, and tempered glass.

At 12:02 a.m. on the 14th everything started working again and has been working just fine ever since.

Coincidence? I wonder...

Get to the point, dear. Nobody wants to hear about that.

So let's talk about reality. Google's AI has no real concept of reality, nor does the camera or TV. They are mere conveniences for our entertainment; they make it easy to alleviate some late night boredom. They are manufactured gizmos, even if they seem smarter than we are sometimes.

Our Triune God is our reality. He made everything that was, everything that is, everything that will be. He has given us the intelligence to survive, the talents to cure, to build, to grow food. He gave us the means to take care of ourselves (and others). We wouldn't even have our toys if God hadn't provided the ideas.

The colors of autumn could only be given by our God; no man can ever create such a palette. As Christ was resurrected, so will be the green of spring. What a wonderful sight He has given us!

God is real. Jesus is real. The Holy Spirit is real. We need not see Him; we can feel Him in us and see His work all around us. Christ will come again!

This, my friends in Christ, is the gift of God's reality.

Your servant in Christ,
Marilyn DiLuzio Rizzo

Green Corner NWPA Synod Green Team

Sometimes in Our Own Back Yard...

Many times we look high and low for persons, places and things that will teach us about the environment and how to care for our wonderful, God-given earth. And sometimes there is something right in our own back yard which is a precious gem that might get overlooked. This month we want to highlight the Tom Ridge Environmental Center (TREC) at Presque Isle State Park in Erie, PA. This state-of-the-art, green-designed facility encourages visitors to experience the unique history and ever-changing, diverse ecosystems of Presque Isle State Park. It is the first building in the Pennsylvania Bureau of State Parks to earn a LEED silver certification rating.

TREC is an educational center dedicated to teaching visitors about the unique 3,200 acres of Presque Isle and the many different forms of life that inhabit the peninsula. TREC also serves as a center for research -- contributing to conservation efforts and promoting environmental awareness, helping to preserve the unparalleled beauty of Presque Isle and Lake Erie, the site of Pennsylvania's only seashore.

While some facilities along the Great Lakes offer environmental education and others do research, only the TREC offers research, education, and visitor services in one place, making it a unique destination for learning, wonder and fun. TREC is open year-round and offers free admission to its interactive exhibits, glass-enclosed tower and orientation movie. Learn about the history of Presque Isle and how you can contribute to keeping it healthy, pristine and beautiful. Perhaps you can plan a day trip to Erie to enjoy and learn more about this wonderful gift to the community. And be sure to check the movie schedule at the center -- they are exciting and very educational!! To learn more about TREC go to www.dcnr.pa.gov/stateparks/findapark/PresqueIsleStatePark.

The Green Team's purpose is to "raise awareness of and advocate for the care of creation." Our mission is to support and encourage creation care ministries, raise awareness, model creation care advocacy consistent with ELCA teachings in our faith communities and public life.
